ORDER

On December 2, 2011, Administrative Law Judge Earl E. Shamwell Jr., of the National Labor Relations Board issued his Decision in the above-entitled proceeding and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge found that the Respondent has engaged in certain unfair labor practices, and recommended that it take specific action to remedy such unfair labor practices.

On December 19, 2011, the Board rescinded the Order Transferring Proceeding to the Board issued on December 2, and remanded the proceeding to the Administrative Law Judge for reconsideration of his December 2 decision after reviewing the post-hearing brief of Local 190, United Association of Journeymen and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipefitting Industry of the United States and Canada (UA), AFL-CIO.

On January 6, 2012, the Administrative Law Judge issued his Supplement to Decision and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. In his Supplement to Decision, the Administrative Law Judge concluded that his Decision issued on December 2, 2011 remained unchanged in terms of his findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommended order.

No statement of exceptions having been filed with the Board to the Administrative Law Judge's December 2, 2011 Decision, as affirmed by his January 6, 2012 Supplement to Decision, and the time allowed for such filing having expired,

Pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in his Decision and Supplement to Decision, and orders that the Respondent, Local 190, United Association of Journeymen and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipe Fitting Industry of the United States and Canada (UA), AFL-CIO, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall take the action set forth in the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge.

Dated, Washington, D.C., February 27, 2012.

By direction of the Board:

Henry S. Breiteneicher
